The Laws of Table Tennis1*The Table

- 1.1 The upper surface of the table, known as the "playing surface", shall be rectangular, 2.74m long and 1.525m wide, and shall lie in a horizontal plane 76cm above the floor.
- 1.2 The playing surface shall include the top edges of the table but not the sides of the table top below the edges.
- 1.3 The playing surface may be of any material and shall yield a uniform bounce of 22-25cm when a standard ball is dropped on to it from a height of 30.5cm.
- 1.4 The playing surface shall be uniformly dark coloured and matt, with a white line 2 cm wide along each edge.
- 1.4.1 The lines along the 2.74 edges shall be known as "side lines".
- 1.4.2 The lines along the 1.525m edges shall be known as "end lines".
- 1.5 The playing surface shall be divided into two equal "courts" by a vertical net running parallel with the end lines, and shall be continuous over the whole area of each court.
- 1.6 For doubles,
- 1.6.1 each court shall be divided into two equal "half courts" by a white line 3mm wide, known as the "centre line", running parallel with the side lines;
- 1.6.2 the centre line shall be regarded as part of the server's right half court and of the receiver's right half court.

2The Net

- 2.1 The net shall be suspended by a cord attached at each end to an upright post 15.25cm high, the outside limits of the post being 15.25cm outside the side line.
- 2.2 The net and its suspension, measured to the outside of the supporting posts, shall be 1.83m long.
- 2.3 The top of the net, along its whole length, shall be 15.25cm above the playing surface.
- 2.4 The bottom of the net, along its whole length, shall be as close as possible to the playing surface and the ends of the net shall be as close as possible to the supporting posts.

3The Ball

- 3.1 The ball shall be spherical, not less than 37.2mm nor more than 38.2mm in diameter.
- 3.2 The ball shall weigh not less than 2.40gm nor more than 2.53gm.
- 3.3 The ball shall be made of celluloid or similar plastics and shall be white or yellow, and matt.

4The Racket

- 4.1 The racket may be of any size, shape or weight.
- 4.2 The blade shall be of wood, continuous, of even thickness, flat and rigid.
- 4.2.1 The blade shall be considered as being of wood provided that at least 85% of the blade by thickness is of natural wood and that no single adhesive layer is thicker than 7.5% of the total thickness or 0.35mm, whichever is the smaller.
- 4.2.2 An adhesive layer in the blade may include reinforcement with fibrous material such as carbon fibre, glass fibre or compressed paper.

- 4.3 The visible surface of each side of the racket, whether used for striking the ball or not, shall be uniformly dark coloured and matt, any trimming round the edge of the blade shall be matt and no part of it shall be white or brightly reflecting.
- 4.4 A side of the blade which is used for striking the ball may be completely uncovered or may be covered over the whole of the striking surface with one of the permitted covering materials, each layer of covering being of uniform thickness.
- 4.5 An uncovered side of the blade which is used for striking the ball shall be either naturally dark coloured or shall be darkened in such a way as not to alter the frictional characteristics of the surface - for example, by staining but not by painting.
- 4.6 The covering material for a side of the blade which is used for striking the ball may be either ordinary pimples rubber with pimples outwards, having a total thickness including adhesive of not more than 2mm, or sandwich rubber with pimples inwards or outwards, having a total thickness including adhesive of not more than 4mm.
- 4.6.1 "Pimples rubber" is a layer of non-cellular rubber, natural or synthetic, with pimples evenly distributed over its surface at a density of not less than 10/sq cm and not more than 50/sq cm.
- 4.6.2 "Sandwich rubber" is a layer of cellular rubber covered with an outer layer of pimples rubber, the total thickness of the pimples rubber being not more than 2mm.
- 4.6.3 The part of the blade nearest to the handle and gripped by the fingers may be covered with any material for convenience of grip and may be considered as part of the handle.
- 4.6.4 Slight deviations from uniformity of colour or continuity of covering due to fading, wear or accidental damage may be ignored provided they do not significantly change the characteristics of the surface.
- 4.7 A side of the blade which is not intended for striking the ball may be painted or covered with any material provided it is uniformly dark coloured and matt, but if a player strikes the ball in play with a side of the blade which does not comply with the requirements of 4.4 - 4.6 above he shall lose a point.
- 4.8 Before using a racket for the first time in a match a player shall allow his opponent and the umpire to examine it.

5 Definitions

- 5.1 A "rally" is the period during which the ball is in play.
- 5.2 A "let" is a rally of which the result is not scored.
- 5.3 A "point" is a rally of which the result is scored.
- 5.4 The "racket hand" is the hand carrying the racket.
- 5.5 The "free hand" is the hand not carrying the racket.
- 5.6 A player "strikes" the ball if he touches it with his racket, held in the hand, or with his racket-hand below the wrist.
- 5.7 A player "volleys" the ball if he strikes it in play when it has not touched his court since last being struck by his opponent.
- 5.8 A player "obstructs" the ball if he, or anything he wears or carries, touches it in play before it has passed over the end line or side line of his court not having touched his court since last being struck by his opponent.
- 5.9 The "server" is the player due to strike the ball first in a rally.
- 5.10 The "receiver" is the player due to strike the ball second in a rally.
- 5.11 The "umpire" is the person appointed to decide the result of each rally.
- 5.12 Anything that a player "wears or carries" includes anything that he was wearing or carrying at the start of the rally.
- 5.13 The ball shall be regarded as passing "over or around" the net if it passes under or outside the projection of the net and its supports outside the table.

6 A Good Service

- 6.1 Service shall begin with the ball resting on the palm of the free hand, which shall be stationary, open and flat, with the fingers together and the thumb free.

- 6.2 The free hand, while in contact with the ball in service, shall at all times be above the level of the playing surface.
- 6.3 The server shall then project the ball upwards, by hand only and without imparting spin, so that it rises from the palm of the hand within 45° of the vertical.
- 6.4 As the ball is falling from the highest point of its trajectory the server shall strike it so that it touches first his own court and then, passing directly over or around the net, touches the receiver's court.
- 6.4.1 In doubles, the ball shall touch first the server's right half-court and then the receiver's right half-court.
- 6.4.2 If, in attempting to serve, a player fails to strike the ball before it goes out of play, he shall lose a point.
- 6.5 At the moment of impact of the racket on the ball in service, the ball shall be behind the end line of the server's court or an imaginary extension thereof.
- 6.6 It is the responsibility of the player to serve so that the umpire or assistant umpire can see that he complies with the requirements for a good service.
- 6.6.1 Except when an assistant umpire has been appointed to act as service judge, the umpire may, on the first occasion in a match at which he has a doubt about the correctness of a player's service, interrupt play and warn the server without awarding a point.
- 6.6.2 On any subsequent occasion in the same match at which the same player's service action is of doubtful correctness, for the same or for any other reason, the player shall not be given the benefit of the doubt and shall lose a point.
- 6.6.3 Whenever there is a clear failure by the server to comply with the requirements for a good service no warning shall be given and he shall lose a point, on the first as on any other occasion.
- 6.7 Exceptionally, strict observance of any particular requirement for a good service may be waived where the umpire is notified, before play begins, that compliance with that requirement is prevented by physical disability.

7 A Good Return

- 7.1 The ball, having been served or returned in play, shall be struck so that it passes directly over or around the net and touches the opponent's court.
- 7.1.1 If the ball, in passing over or around the net, touches the net or its supports it shall be regarded as having passed directly.
- 7.1.2 If the ball, having been served or returned in play, bounces back over the net it may be struck so that it touches the opponent's court directly and shall be regarded as having passed over or around the net.

8 The Order of Play

- 8.1 In singles, the server shall first make a good service, the receiver shall then make a good return and thereafter server and receiver alternately shall each make a good return.
- 8.2 In doubles, the server shall first make a good service, the receiver shall then make a good return, the partner of the server shall then make a good return, the partner of the receiver shall then make a good return and thereafter each player in turn in that sequence shall make a good return.

9 In Play

- 9.1 The ball shall be in play from the last moment at which it is stationary on the palm of the free hand before being projected in service until
- 9.1.1 it has, except in service, touched the playing surface twice in succession without having been struck intermediately;
- 9.1.2 it has touched any person or object other than the playing surface, the net or its supports, the racket held in the hand or the racket hand below the wrist;
- 9.1.3 the rally has otherwise been decided as a let or a point.

10 A Let

- 10.1 The rally shall be a let:
- 10.1.1 if in service the ball, in passing over or around the net, touches it or its supports, provided the service is otherwise good or is volleyed or obstructed by the receiver or his partner;
- 10.1.2 if the service is delivered when, in the opinion of the umpire, the receiving player or pair is not ready, provided that neither the receiver nor his partner attempts to strike the ball;
- 10.1.3 if, in the opinion of the umpire, failure to make a good service or a good return or otherwise to comply with the Laws is due to a disturbance outside the control of the player;
- 10.1.4 if it is interrupted to correct an error in the order of serving, receiving or ends;
- 10.1.5 if it is interrupted to introduce the expedite system;
- 10.1.6 if it is interrupted to warn a player that his service is of doubtful correctness;
- 10.1.7 if the conditions of play are disturbed in a way which, in the opinion of the umpire, is likely to affect the outcome of the rally.

11 A Point

- 11.1 Unless the rally is a let, a player shall lose a point
- 11.1.1 if he fails to make a good service;
- 11.1.2 if he fails to make a good return;
- 11.1.3 if he volleys or obstructs the ball, except as provided in 10.1.1;
- 11.1.4 if he strikes the ball twice successively;
- 11.1.5 if he strikes the ball with a side of the racket blade whose surface does not comply with the requirements of 4.4 - 4.6;
- 11.1.6 if he, or anything he wears or carries, moves the playing surface while the ball is in play;
- 11.1.7 if his free hand touches the playing surface while the ball is in play;
- 11.1.8 if he, or anything he wears or carries, touches the net or its supports while the ball is in play;
- 11.1.9 if, in doubles, he strikes the ball out of the sequence established by the server and receiver;
- 11.1.10 if, under the expedite system, his service and twelve successive good returns of the serving player or pair are all followed by good returns of the receiving player or pair.

12 A Game

- 12.1 A game shall be won by the player or pair first scoring 21 points except that, where both players or pairs have scored 20 points, the game shall be won by the player or pair first scoring subsequently 2 points more than the opposing player or pair.

13 A Match

- 13.1 A match shall consist of one game, the best of three games or the best of five games.
- 13.2 Play shall be continuous throughout a match except that any player shall be entitled to claim an interval of not more than five minutes between the third and fourth games of a match and of not more than one minute between any other successive games of a match.

14 The Choice of Service and Ends

- 14.1 The right to serve or receive first or to choose an end shall be decided by lot.
- 14.2 The winner may
- 14.2.1 choose to serve or to receive first, when the loser shall have the choice of ends;
- 14.2.2 choose an end, when the loser shall have the choice of serving or receiving first;
- 14.2.3 require the loser to make the first choice, when the winner shall have whichever choice is not made by the loser.
- 14.3 In doubles, the pair having the right to serve first in any game shall decide which of them will do so:
- 14.3.1 in the first game of a match, the opposing pair shall then decide which of them will receive first;
- 14.3.2 in subsequent games of the match, the first receiver will be determined by the choice of server, in accordance with the requirements of 15.5.

15 The Order of Serving and Receiving

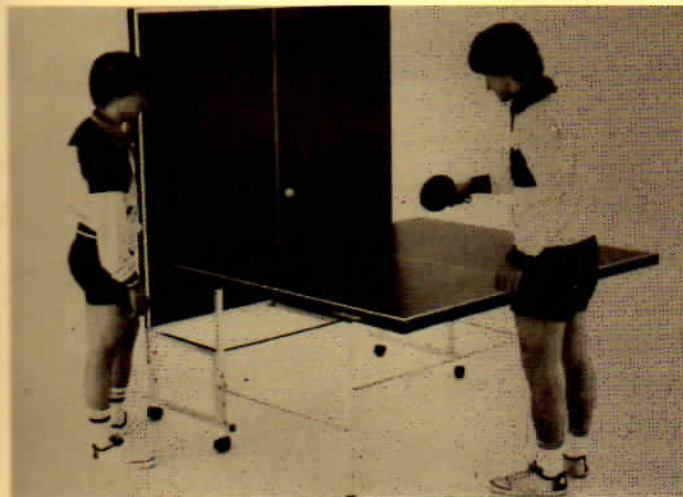

- 15.1 After 5 points have been scored the receiving player or pair shall become the serving player or pair and so on until the end of the game, or until each player or pair has scored 20 points or until the introduction of the expedite system.
- 15.2 In doubles,
- 15.2.1 the first server shall be the selected player of the pair having the right to serve first and the first receiver shall be the appropriate player of the opposing pair;
- 15.2.2 the second server shall be the player who was the first receiver and the second receiver shall be the partner of the first server;
